COPYRIGHT

We need the publishing right in order for the Global Clinical and Translational to publish and disseminate research articles. The right is determined by a publishing agreement between the author and the publisher. This agreement deals with the transfer or license of the copyright to the publisher.

The Author of the Article as listed in below and in the article hereby agree to transfers copyright to the Global Clinical and Translational Research (respective to owner if other than Global Clinical and Translational Research Institute, Inc, Bethesda, MD and for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable) effective when the article is accepted for publication. The author acknowledges that his/her has full power to sign for and accept responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all co-authors.

The author(s) confirm(s) that the manuscript will not be published elsewhere in any language before obtaining the permission and the consent of the copyright holder(s), that the rights of third parties will not be violated, and that the publisher will not be held legally responsible should there be any claims for compensation.

The transfer of this copyright covers the exclusive right to disseminate article, which include but is not limited to reprints, translations, photographic reproductions, microform, electronic form (offline, online) or any other reproductions of similar nature. The publisher supports the authors to share, disseminate and maximize the impact of their research:

- a. An author can self-archive an author-created version of this article and may list it on his/her own website, provided it is not made publicly available until after 12 months of official publication;
- b. He/she may not use the PDF version as it is posted on the website <https://www.gcatresearch.com> for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit;
- c. Acknowledgement is given by stating, "The original publication is available at <https://www.gcatresearch.com>".

Articles published via <https://www.gcatresearch.com> are indexed, abstracted, and referenced by abstracting and information services, bibliographic networks, subscription agencies, library networks, and consortia.

AUTHORSHIP

I, the undersigned author(s), certify that:

- a. I have approved the final version of the manuscript for a publication;
- b. I have made substantial contributions to the conception or design of the work, or acquisition of data, or analysis or interpretation of data, or provided critical comments on the manuscript;
- c. I have drafted the article or revised it critically for important intellectual content.

I accept public responsibility for it, and believe it represents valid work. As an author of this article, I certify that none of the material in the manuscript has been previously published, nor is included in any other manuscript. I certify that this manuscript is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, nor has it been submitted or accepted in another publication in any form. The rights or interest in the manuscript has not been assigned to any third party.

Should the editors of the journal of Global Clinical and Translational Research request the data on which the manuscript is based, I shall produce it. I also certify that I have read and complied with the copyright information provided above or on the website <https://www.gcatresearch.com/>.

After submission of this agreement signed by all authors, the journal, Global Clinical and Translational Research will not accept the changes of authorship or in the order of the authors listed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I certify that any financial interests such as employment, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, as well as any personal relationships, academic competition, and intellectual passion which may inappropriately influence my actions, have been included within my manuscript. The statement of Conflicts of Interest has been included in the article.

All funding sources supporting the work and all institutional or corporate affiliations of mine are acknowledged in the article when published.

I have had full access to all the data in the study (if applicable) and thereby accept full responsibility for the integrity of the data and the accuracy of the data analysis.

I assert that there are no conflicts of interest (both personal and institutional) regarding specific financial interests that are relevant to the work conducted or reported in this manuscript.
